

GIVE GERMANY UNTIL MONDAY NOON TO ACCEPT ALL DEMANDS

Allies Plan Immediate Steps To Compel Acceptance If Refusal is Made

Occupation of Many Leading German Cities is Alternative

Would Impose Tax Sufficient To Meet All Reparation

(By Associated Press)

London, March 3.—Germany was today given until Monday noon to accept the fundamental conditions laid down by the Supreme Allied Council at Paris.

The German delegates were informed by the Allied representatives today that if Germany does not accept those terms, the Allies will take immediate steps.

"The first will be the occupation by Allied troops of the cities of Duisburg, Düsseldorf and Ruhrort.

Second: Each allied country will place such a tax on German merchandise as it may deem proper.

Third: A customs boundary along the Rhine, under allied control, will be established.

Germany's counter proposals, which were submitted to the allies on Tuesday, were not susceptible of examination, Premier Lloyd George told Dr. Walter Simons, head of the German delegation, in substance, after today's session of the conference had assembled at St. James Palace at noon.

ONLY CHANGES

The German delegation was informed that the only modification of the Paris reparations decision permitted to Germany would be as regarded conditions of payment, such as a reduction of the series of annuities from 42 years to 30 years.

PROMISE REPLY

After Mr. Lloyd George had finished Dr. Simons for the Germans said the intention of the German Government had been quite misunderstood. The German delegation, he said, would reply at noon on Monday.

"In our opinion," added the German foreign minister, "no occasion will arise for the sanctions set forth by the allied powers."

It was noted during the British Prime Minister's presentation of the allied decision that he had left an opening for the Germans to make new proposals, and Dr. Simons in making the reply he did was prompt to take advantage of this.

WASHINGTON PREPARES FOR A MILD INAUGURAL

Mr. and Mrs. Harding Call on President and Mrs. Wilson.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 3.—After eight eventful years, the Democratic administration closed up its books today and rested to await the termination of its tenure at noon tomorrow.

Meantime, the streets of the capital reflected only in a mild degree the complete rearrangement about to be made in the national government. Flags and bunting were out and tonight the dome of the capitol building was illuminated for the first time since the armistice.

Four troops of cavalry will escort the President and President-elect to the capitol tomorrow, but no parade will be permitted and there will be little of the nanoply of former inaugurations.

Just what part President Wilson will play in the day's program remained in doubt tonight. Although his broken health makes it difficult for him to move about, he has prevailed upon his family and medical advisors to permit him to follow out the custom of riding down Pennsylvania Avenue with his successor.

The call of Mr. Harding at the White House took place today. Mr. and Mrs. Harding were received by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson in the Green Room and after tea the four remained together for twenty minutes, chatting largely of the household affairs.

Cleveland, O., March 3.—Plots which involved the planned assassination of Cleveland citizens connected with the Loyal American League, the destruction by dynamite of downtown buildings, and an intensive campaign of anarchistic propaganda throughout the city are believed to have been nipped by the arrest here recently of eight men said to be members of a dangerous anarchistic group.

The eight men are now in the county jail facing charges under the espionage law that the government expects will lead to their deportation.

SUBMARINES IN DISTRESS OFF EAST COAST

(By Associated Press)

New York, March 3.—Two submarines, the C-7 and C-8, reported by wires tonight that they were in need of assistance. The C-8 is ashore between Penikese and Gull Islands in Buzzard's Bay, and the C-7 is in distress about three miles east of Race Rock, Wilderness Point, in Long Island Sound. Her trouble is not known.

The C-8 had gone ashore about one mile from the Cuttyhunk coast guard station, the message said. A coast guard cutter was standing alongside and she was expected to float at midnight. The message indicated the submarine was in no immediate danger.

WILL T. R. JR. FOLLOW FATHER'S FOOTSTEPS TO PRESIDENCY?

Col. Theodore Roosevelt II, left, and his famous father. Below, a well-known photo of the late "Teddy" taken when he gained fame as a Rough Rider. At right, Teddy II in his uniform during the World war.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt, son of the late ex-president, has been named assistant secretary of the navy under Edwin Denby by President-elect Harding, which means that the younger "Teddy" has taken one more step along the public pathway tread by his illustrious daddy. The late ex-president first gained prominence politically as assistant secretary of the navy. In one other vital respect has the son of "Teddy" emulated his father. The late colonel distinguished himself by his bravery while leading the Rough Riders at San Juan Hill in the Spanish-American war. Young Roosevelt enlisted in the World war at the first sign of conflict and although he failed to win the glory that was his father's he attracted attention by his soldierly bearing and courage and worked himself up to the rank of colonel. His recent appointment has set followers of the late "T. R." to wondering whether he will some day make history by ascending to the presidency. It would be the first time in the history of the republic that a son of a former president filled that office, should this come to pass.

CATCH WHISKY RUNNER AFTER A GUN BATTLE

(By Associated Press)

Chillicothe, O., March 3.—Bootleggers and county officers staged a gun battle in the eastern part of this city this morning which ended in the capture of one of the men.

The county is being scoured for the other who escaped.

The men were in a touring car and when ordered to stop by Sheriff Immel, who had been on their trail for some time, they tried to run over the officers, who drew their guns and opened fire. E. Fisher was captured and Leo McQuide escaped.

A complete still was found in the car together with about 40 pints of corn whisky and a repeating rifle with a Maxim silencer and loaded with dum-dum cartridges.

PRESIDENT VETOES THE EMERGENCY MEASURE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 3.—The Fordney emergency tariff bill was vetoed late today by President Wilson in a message which declared that "this is no time for the erection here of high trade barriers," and that the measure "would not furnish in any substantial degree the relief sought by the producers of most of the staple commodities which it covers."

"The situation in which many of the farmers of the country find themselves cannot be remedied by a measure of this sort," the President said. "Measures of this sort can only have the effect of deceiving the farmers and of raising false hopes among them."

"The farmer needs a better system of domestic marketing and credit, but especially larger foreign markets for his surplus products."

NAVAL BILL IS THING OF PAST AT THIS SESSION

Entire Pre-Adjournment Program Disrupted

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 3.—Hope of passing the naval appropriation bill at this session was abandoned today by Senator Poindexter, Republican, who has been in charge of it, and the Senate proceeded to other business.

A new naval bill will have to be drafted at the special session of Congress which President Harding is expected to call for April 4th.

Withdrawal of the naval bill threw the whole readjustment program into confusion. Leaders said frankly they did not know what would be done, but agreed that there was no chance for any other important legislation being put through.

WAR PROBES COMPLETE WORK

(By Associated Press)

The modified report then was filed in the House.

HARDING IN CAPITAL AND READY FOR INAUGURAL

Devotes Time to Social Chat With Family As Train Nears Washington

Has Only One Appointment to Cabinet Still Uncertain

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 3.—President-elect Harding reached Washington at 1:00 o'clock this afternoon and went into conference with inaugural officials on details of tomorrow's ceremonies.

Although the presidential special reached the capital a half hour ahead of schedule a large crowd greeted the President-elect as he walked out through the President's entrance of the station.

In his conferences with inauguration officials it was understood the question of a call of courtesy on President Wilson was discussed. Mr. Harding indicated he would be guided by suggestions from the committee.

On Board President-elect Harding's Special Train, March 3.—As he approached Washington today to enter upon the duties of the presidency, Warren G. Harding took a final holiday aboard his private car "Superb," putting work and worry aside and visiting with members of his family as though he were an ordinary traveler making a casual trip across the country.

In the busy months since he was nominated, Mr. Harding has seen little if any of his nearest relatives, and he seized upon this occasion to renew ties that in former days had held the members of his family close together.

On the "Superb," besides the President-elect and Mrs. Harding, were his father, a brother and a sister.

With his inaugural address completed and nine of his ten cabinet members finally selected, the President-elect really has only the definite choice of secretary of labor pending for decision before he takes the oath of office at noon tomorrow.

His quondam on that subject apparently did not weigh heavily on his mind today, however, for he is understood to have decided not to close up the portfolio until he has held further conferences in Washington.

The Presidential special, which left Marion last night, was due in Washington at 1:30 p. m. today, but it fell behind schedule and was not expected to reach the capital until late in the afternoon. The party will go directly to a hotel to wait for the coming of the inaugural escort tomorrow.

CANNOT OBTAIN WATER SUPPLY FROM THE CREEK

Greenfield Facing New Problem To Get Water

Greenfield is having serious trouble in order to obtain an adequate supply of pure water, and installation of chlorine treatment equipment has been ordered to insure purity.

Concerning the move for a greater water supply, which was taken up by Solicitor Coke L. Foster, who reported to council, the Greenfield Republican says in part:

"As to the move for a more adequate supply and for the securing of a pure supply for domestic purposes,
Mr. Foster took up the report of Engineer Kimberly, holding that the amount called for was more than Greenfield could really handle, under the circumstances, but the state health commissioner stated that it was a liberal estimate, and that the improvement could probably be made for a much less sum at this time, or in the spring at least.

"Mr. Foster asked if the health department would permit the putting in of a filtration plant and taking the water supply from Paint creek, was informed that under no circumstances would this be allowed. The state health authorities hold that the creek water is polluted, that it is no way purified in its flow and declares this is true of every stream of water. No filtration plant no matter how carefully put in, they hold, is not safe at all times.

"Solicitor Foster asked if a new standpipe were put in, with the proper connections, if the department would allow the purifying of the water with a chlorine plant, and if this would be all right. The reply was that it would undoubtedly be all right, but they would not recommend it. In short, the state health department insists that the plans put forth by Engineer Kimberly be followed, that something be done about this right away, and that in the meantime the water for the city be treated by the chlorine method."

A movement which was launched which has gained considerable prominence in recent weeks, is the "Pray for the President" day, fixed for Sunday, March 6.

Appeals have been sent out to all denominations urging that prayer be made on Sunday, March 6, for the new president, and it is stated by Rev. Irvin that many messages assuring him of hearty co-operation have been received, and that the movement has attained nation-wide proportions.

give this city a wide berth as a careful watch is being kept for such violators of the Crabbe act, and heavy fines will be assessed in each instance.

ARMORY SITE REPORT EXPECTED MONDAY EVENING

As result of the recruiting of a Machine Gun Company of the National Guard of this city, the only provision necessary for insuring an armory, except a suitable site, has been complied with, and it is expected that the committee on sites will be ready to report to council at the regular monthly session Monday night.

The committee it is announced by the chairman, has been offered a large number of prospective sites and at comparatively reasonable prices, so that it is believed little difficulty will be experienced in obtaining a site that will be passed favorably by the State Armory Board.

It is also expected that the state Armory board will be invited to this city within the next few weeks, to inspect prospective sites, after which the city, under resolution recently passed, will purchase the site and tender the lot to the state.

Every effort will be made to have the armory constructed as speedily as possible, although several months probably will elapse before the usual "red tape" unwinds.

ONE-SIDED GAME FOR TRIANGLES

Beuna Vista Defeats Good Hope in dependents in Preliminary.

By a score of 51 to 29 the Y. M. C. A. basket ball team turned back the strong Hillsboro Red Birds on the local floor Wednesday evening with a game in which the Triangles easily outclassed their visitors.

In the preliminary game between the independent teams of Beuna Vista and Good Hope the Beuna Vista quintet was too much for the Good Hope five and won 12 to 4. Robert Cockerill, a former Washington High court star, played right guard for Beuna Vista.

The games were witnessed by an unusually large crowd. One entire seating section was given over to a delegation from Greenfield which included the Greenfield Independent team. It seems that intense rivalry has sprung up between Hillsboro and Greenfield and the Greenfield fans rooted wildly for the locals.

It was a lead commanded in the first few minutes of the game that won for the Triangles. Before the Red Birds were able to get started the Y. M. C. A. five had piled in a string of baskets that the visitors were never even able to threaten. The score at the end of the opening half was 32 to 9 and the game was practically decided.

Hillsboro showed to advantage in the last session. The Red Birds scored 20 points to the locals 19. Noah Emery better known as "Snag," was one of Hillsboro's stars. Emery is well known to the baseball fans as the hard working back stop of the Washington Athletics.

Vogel shot baskets sensationally for Hillsboro.

The Triangle team played as a unit and shot baskets at will.

Germany Snarls

The conference of the allied nations' representatives and the representatives of Germany regarding the amount of reparations demanded, in the early stages if one would accept seriously the attitude of the Teutons, shows indications of resulting in disagreement.

Developments in several of the smaller nations of Europe during the last year have been such as might reasonably be expected to encourage the German obstinacy and deceit. There has been too, most unfortunately, a lack of complete accord and unity of purpose among the allied nations—a divided household—which has revived hope among the Germans that they will be able to win the war in the councils around the peace table by separate attacks and separate appeals to the selfishness of the opposing nations.

That same lack of accord in purpose and plan during the earlier years of the war enabled the German armies to make frightful gains in their assaults upon the citadels of freedom.

Not until the allied nations ceased to act selfishly and put their individual ambitions second to the common cause did the armies of civilization begin an advance which was not checked until final victory was achieved.

As long as the allied nations debate among themselves about the council table, uncertain as to the demands to be made upon Germany, or give to the conquered nation the impression that unity of thought and purpose does not prevail among them, Germany is certain to refuse compliance with the demands.

Germany's counter offer to pay seven billion five hundred million dollars in full of all claims for reparation is an insult. Victorious Germany in 1870 demanded and received five billions from conquered France.

Yap

Very few Americans, until quite recently, knew anything about Yap and most of that few associated the name Yap with a little dot about as big as the point of a blunt pin on the map—way out in the vast Pacific ocean. Some thought of it only as a name for the rather unsophisticated people among us.

Right now Yap has sprung into prominence as the subject of a discussion involving the United States, Great Britain and Japan.

Yap is a little small, and but for its location on the cable routes to the Orient, no account island about 250 miles southwest of Guam.

Japan has taken possession of it along with some other islands in the Pacific ocean awarded by the allies to her and is therefore in control of the nerve center of the Pacific cables.

The disposition of the spoils of victory were made by the allies with the United States not a party to the treaty and Yap was given to Japan.

The State Department has notified the allies that Japan's title to Yap will not be recognized by this nation and the little barren island becomes, all at once, one of the most important bits of ground in the world.

The Senate Approves

The Senate by unanimous vote has given approval to the proposal, first urged by Senator Borah in different form, for the calling of a conference of the United States, Great Britain and Japan to consider general disarmament.

Starting, as we must, with the presumption that the effort is to be sincerely made, approval must be given by all people who would stop war and the awful burdens and cost of preparation for war.

Many individuals may not be in entire accord with the method adopted, may prefer to make use of some other means, yet the form of the attempt matters but little so long as the end sought is the same—to put an end to war.

It is the insistence on some other, some different way than the one proposed which has during all history, prevented the people from protecting themselves against the horrors of war and the cost of preparation. People of all nations have been struggling for ages to bring an end to war but before they are well started on the way to accomplishment of their purpose they have permitted themselves to become involved in disagreement over the method.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THE JOURNEY

And now I fancy you across the night Swift hurrying beneath the march of stars,
 The glinting wheels upon the long chill bars
 Revolving as they whirl in spectral flight;
 Sometimes among the hills a phantom light
 Is seen, then gone, as the unplung-ing cars
 With lurch and swirl and multitudinous jars
 Reel towards the bourne, dim shadows long in sight.

Hour follows hour as if some maddened thing
 Bore you through blackness on your journeying,
 Then in the east a sudden flock of foam
 Becomes the dawn; there is the peer of sun;
 And now at last your wandering is done;
 Here are your lover's arms, and
 "Welcome home!"

SIT DOWN A MINUTE AND THINK

Size Up Your Condition. Look at the Facts Squarely

IT PAYS TO HAVE GOOD HEALTH

Most illnesses are prevented by a Good Supply of Rich, Red Blood
 Take Pepto-Mangan, the Red Blood Builder

Either you are in good health or you are not. There's no half way. You may think nothing of being a little run-down. It may not worry you if you look pale. You may think you'll be all right tomorrow or next day. But will you?

Certain it is when you do not feel just right, you are not right. There is probably something the matter with your blood. And while you can get around and do your work you are leaving your self open to any of the diseases that are always waiting to take possession of run down people.

When you are pale and easily tired, when you cannot enjoy your meals, when you lose enthusiasm, your blood needs attention.

Take Pepto-Mangan for awhile. It is a great tonic. It will build up your resistance to disease, and you will soon feel stronger. The little red corpuscles are fighters. They battle with disease germs and win out when there are enough of them. Keep your system well supplied. Then you will keep well and you will enjoy life.

But be certain you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for it by the full name—"Gude's Pepto-Mangan." Some people take it in tablet form. It is so convenient. The liquid and the tablets have the same medicinal value. Look for the name "Gude's" on the package. Advertisement.

WILSON'S ACTION ON IMMIGRATION BILL WORRIES THE DEMOCRATS

They Fear Pocket Veto By The Retiring Executive

Would Mean Months of Delay Before The Bill Could be Re-passed.

BY MARK SULLIVAN
 (Copyright 1921)

Washington, March 2.—Democratic leaders are apprehensive that President Wilson intends to subject the immigration restriction bill, which has been in his hands since Saturday night, to a pocket veto. Mr. Wilson has three alternatives. He can sign the bill, in which case it instantly becomes a law. He can formally veto the bill and return it to congress, in which case congress, although the time is short, would probably pass it over his veto by far more than the necessary two-thirds majority. This alternative would at least give congress the opportunity to re-pass the measure.

Mr. Wilson's third alternative is to do nothing, which course would have the effect, not only of vetoing the bill, but also of preventing congress from any opportunity to pass it over his veto. This latter course is the one that Democratic leaders are apprehensive of. Such a course would be regarded as deplorable by the Democratic leaders in the absence of some well grounded explanation. The bill is overwhelmingly popular both throughout the country and in congress. In its present amended form the bill passed the senate in less than a minute by a vote of over 30 to 1, and the house by a vote of over 7 to 1. Moreover, it is two members of Mr. Wilson's own party who are most responsible for the progress the bill has had.

It was largely the insistence of Senator Harrison of Mississippi, and Senator Harris of Georgia, that compelled the senate committee to report the bill in time to let the senate as a whole act upon it. If President Wilson should subject the bill to a pocket veto it would not be possible to do anything until after Mr. Harding calls an extra session of congress. This session will probably not be called until well into April. The passage of the bill through this new and somewhat changed congress would probably entail several months of delay.

BABY BORN ON PEACE DAY

After Mother Had Been Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Salisbury, Mass.—"For seven years I had a female trouble and such bearing-down pains I could hardly do my housework. The doctor said, 'If you can have another baby it might be the best thing for you but I am afraid you cannot.' I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my baby was born on 'Peace Day.' If women would only take your Vegetable Compound they would have better health. I always recommend your Vegetable Compound to the neighbors."—Mrs. TRACY PATTEN, 2 Lincoln Ave., Salisbury, Massachusetts.

The experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as it is impossible for a weak sickly wife to bring healthy children into the world. Therefore if a woman is suffering from a displacement, backache, inflammation, ulceration, bearing-down pains, headaches, nervousness or "the blues" she should profit by Mrs. Patten's experience, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be restored to health.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Widely heralded in its interest and celebrated with an elaborateness and beauty which gave it unusual distinction was the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Junk at their handsome country home "Lone-oak" near Austin on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Junk have lived to see their own happiness and usefulness reflected in the lives of eight children, twenty-one grand children and two great grand children; as members of a prominent and well known family of the Austin community, they have generously taken their part in every activity and contributed to whatever was for the community welfare and relatives and friends eagerly welcomed the opportunity to bring the most heartfelt felicitations as well as quantities of flowers and handsome gifts galore, which will be prized souvenirs of this wonderful milestone.

The bride and bridegroom of fifty years ago, youthful in spirits and enjoying the day to the fullest extent, gave cordial greetings—the bride looking particularly well in a gown of the same color as her wedding gown—a grey silk crepe, trimmed with pointed lace, and pointed lace veil, shoulder length, fastened to her hair with orange blossoms and carrying a beautiful bride's bouquet—the bridegroom wearing the coat and vest of his wedding day.

Miss Etta Junk, the daughter at home, who planned and successfully carried out the day's plans, received with her parents, becomingly gowned in grey baronette satin, with corsage bouquet.

The other children, all of whom assisted in entertaining the guests, were Mr. Otto Junk, Chillicothe, Mr. Raymond Junk, of this city, Mrs. Clara Smith, of Williamsport; Mr. Elmer Junk, Mrs. Ida Jones, of this city, Frank, of Austin, and Troy, residing here.

The home was a perfect bower of floral beauty, the decorating done by the Buck florists. In the living room, built up against a background of Southern smilax, was a nuptial altar, guarded at either side by tall standards filled with yellow jonquils and greenery. The mantel was banked with smilax, yellow tapers burning at each end and a center basket filled with jonquils.

The starway was masked in smilax and throughout the home jonquils and greenery were effectively arranged. The same gold and white color scheme was carried out in the dining room, the bride's table having for its central embellishment a lovely basket of daffodils and freesia, the handle tied with big yellow tulie bow. Smaller tables had in the center yellow tulips in bud vases.

The day's program was full to overflowing.

Two elaborate five course dinners were served, with sixty guests at the noon dinner; seventy-five at six o'clock dinner and a hundred and fifty attending the afternoon reception.

The wedding hour was the same as that of the wedding, eleven-thirty, and eight of the original wedding guests were seated with the bride and bridegroom, the reminiscences of so many of the first wedding party adding piquant sauce to the delicious viands of the courses.

Vogel's Orchestra, of Chillicothe, which played all day, played the wedding march which summoned the bridal party. The ribbon bearers were Mr. and Mrs. Junk's grandchildren, Janet Junk, Virginia Smith, Charles Jones, Billy Junk, Mary Catherine Junk and Louise Junk, forming a pretty picture all in yellow and white. Paul Jones, a cunning grandson, carried upon a white satin cushion a diamond pin, the gift of the groom to the bride of his golden wedding. Geraldine Junk, a great grand child, scattered rose petals from a basket tied with yellow tulie. The bride and bridegroom were preceded by the original bridesmaid and best man, Mrs. Riah Cline of Frankfort and Mr. J. G. Robinson, of Xenia. They were met at the altar by Rev. P. W. Drumm, of Ironton, assisted by Rev. A. E. McCullough, of Frankfort.

After congratulations the guests were invited to the dining room. Seated with the bride and bridegroom at the bridal table were the guests, who attended the original wedding: Mr. J. G. Robinson of Xenia, Mrs. Riah Cline, Mr. Charles Junk of Frankfort, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McCoy of this city, Mr. Samuel Willis of Dayton, Mr. Thomas Junk of this city, Mrs. Phoebe Junk of Frankfort an aunt.

Throughout the courses the color scheme was introduced and the bride cut the wedding cake.

A most interesting feature was the reading of a poem written for the fiftieth anniversary of the groom's grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, in February 1867, which had been preserved by the bridesmaid, Mrs. Cline, and was read by Mrs. Troy Junk. The poem was written by the late Rev. J. P. A. Dickey and introduced six generations.

At the evening dinner Mrs. Elmer Junk read a poem written for this anniversary by Mr. M. L. Dickey, of Bloomingburg, son of Rev. Dickey.

Favors for the noon dinner were yellow daffodils tied with yellow ribbon, for the reception sweet peas and at the evening dinner boutonnieres.

The guests at the evening dinner were children, nephews and neices and the same elaborate courses were served as at noon. The reception menu was of three courses of delicacies.

Lucas, of Chillicothe, catered.

The gifts to bridesmaid and best man were the bride's bouquet and a pearl scarf pin.

Assisting at the reception, for which friends came from long distances, were Mrs. Earl Barnett and Miss Myrtle McCoy, nieces, of this city, and the groom's twin sisters, Misses Mary and Martha Junk of Austin.

This golden wedding celebration will long be a cherished memory with all who participated and hosts of friends are hoping that Mr. and Mrs. Junk may happily celebrate many other anniversaries.

The regular meeting and quarterly Tea of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Grace Methodist Church was held in the church parlors, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Frank M. Kennedy and Mrs. Karl B. Alexander had the opening exercises, and Mrs. Eva J. Penn presented the program.

Mrs. A. W. Duff and Mrs. C. S. Haver poured at an attractive tea table, which had for its decoration three white tapers burning in crystal sticks. Mrs. Irene Haver of Cincinnati, Mrs. Corbett and daughter, Miss Roxy, of Jeffersonville were guests.

Mrs. Harry W. Townsley, Mrs. Howard C. McLean, Mrs. Charles Ballard, Miss Ida Hays were hostesses at the meeting of the Woman's Mission Circle of the First Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon at the Townsley home corner Main street and Circle avenue.

There was an unusual large attendance, and the Meeting full of interest. Mrs. George L. Hart of Seville, and Mrs. A. W. West, of Chillicothe both former members of the Society, were honor guests.

Mrs. William Vincent conducted the devotional exercises, Mrs. John Case and Mrs. Ballard gave interesting detailed reports of the Missionary Convention held in Springfield last week.

Mrs. Hart prefaced the afternoon's study from the book, "Bible and the Mission," by Mrs. Helen Benett Montgomery, with an account of the early life of the author, who was a school friend of Mrs. Hart.

Mrs. Carrie B. Willis had a splendid paper on "Needs in China."

Daffodils were effectively arranged in the large rooms of the home, and the hostesses served a particularly delicious lunch during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Patterson (Iris Thompson) who are guests of Mr. Patterson's parents in Atlanta, Ga., have been honored with an unusual amount of entertaining in southern home of the bridegrooms' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Patterson in Atlanta, Ga.

Among these affairs chronicled in Atlanta papers Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Riley of Kentucky, who are spending the winter in Atlanta gave a theater party Thursday evening and Mr. Assa Patterson, brother of Mr. Patterson, entertained Saturday evening with a dinner at the Piedmont Driving Club.

Mrs. Patterson was honor guest at two luncheons, the one by Mrs. T. Guy Woolford at her home in Springfield road, Druid Hills.

Several small Florentine vases filled with jonquils adorned the center of the table. Dainty hand-painted cards marked the guest places.

Covers were placed for twelve family connections.

Mrs. Glen Reymann's (Ann Patterson) luncheon in her sister-in-law's honor was lovely.

A Madeira cloth overlaid the dining table, the center of which was adorned with a group of Florentine vases holding jonquils, surrounded with candlesticks with yellow unshaded tapers. Hand-painted cards marked the place of each guest.

Mrs. Patterson was gowned in a midday costume of henna colored satin with self trimmings and a henna colored hat trimmed with maling.

Mrs. Ryman wore brown Canton crepe embroidered with brown beads and girdled with ribbon.

An event of Friday evening was the beautiful dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Patterson at their home in West Peachtree street.

The dining table, which was in the shape of a horseshoe, had an eighteen-inch border of a variety of bright spring flowers in every shade, hyacinths, tulips and crocuses, enclosing a mound of nodding ferns and daffodils.

At intervals, trees of jonquils grew uniformly three feet above the board. Unique favors were presented to each guest. The place cards were figures of girls with costumes of rainbow colors.

Mrs. Jacob Patterson wore a handsome dinner gown of black lace over a satin foundation.

Mrs. Joseph Patterson wore an imported gown of white satin embroidered in gold and heavily beaded with pearls, a corsage of orchid and valley lilies completing the costume.

Mrs. Glen Ryman, who assisted her mother in entertaining, wore a gown of orchid colored brocaded satin trimmed with pastel shaded sweet peas.

Mrs. Doan Powless delightfully entertained with an elegant six o'clock dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. Powless' birthday at their home on East street.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the menu and also in cut flowers and potted plants gracefully arranged.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flee, son Bobbie, Miss Alice Knebler and Mr. Robert Powless.

Each dance given by the Masonic Social Club adds new prestige to the organization and the one of Tuesday night called forth the verdict that it was the banner one of the series in pleasure and gaiety.

Seventy couples were in attendance and O'Brien's Peerless Quintet, of Springfield, furnished wonderful music delighting both dancers and onlookers. Light refreshments were served.

Mesdames Eugene N. Holloway, G. C. Kidner, W. B. Snider, L. F. Thomas, Nolin Hathaway, L. H. Goddard, Charles Sollars and Charles McLean filled the role of hostesses at the Guild Kensington of the First Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Holloway cordially extending the hospitality of her home on Ogle street.

Despite the rainy day there was a large attendance and the afternoon most enjoyable.

Mrs. J. F. Dennis, President, conducted a brief business session, during which encouraging reports of the recent supper and the present status of the Guild were given. Especially were the women gratified to know that the church parsonage is now ready for occupancy and very attractive from recent redecoration and improvements, as the result of the Guild's efforts and done under its supervision.

The serving of a delicious collation was a feature of the afternoon's sociability.

Mrs. Wert Shoop entertained the Wednesday Bridge Club at a delightful luncheon, yellow jonquils adding a bright note of spring to the pretty table.

Twenty-two members of the Charlette Tuttle Sisterhood of the First Presbyterian Sunday School enjoyed the cordial hospitality of the Passmore home corner Ogle and Treoman streets, Wednesday evening, Miss Anna Passmore hostess.

A short business session preceded the social part of the evening.

Mrs. Ralph Mayer left Friday morning for Cambridge, O., to join her husband, who is located at that place.

Mrs. Laurella Sever went to Columbus, Thursday, to visit her son, Loren Sever, and attend the Gypsy Smith evangelistic meetings.

Mrs. Earl Horney was called to Sabina, Wednesday by the death of her mother, Mrs. Lewellen.

Three times the forms were made up here and then transported to Greenfield where the press of the Greenfield Republican rendered service.

When the paper was printed at Greenfield it was necessary to send the same edition to both evening and morning subscribers but with the arrival of the repairs the morning service edition was resumed.

SAYS PUNISHMENT IS NOT NECESSARY

Washington, March 3. — Corporal punishment of school children is "likely to indicate weakness in the teacher," P. P. Claxton, federal commissioner of education, said in a statement prompted by reports he has received of severe punishments in some schools. One report told of a 14-year-old boy having received 18 lashes. "Any person competent to teach and manage a school can maintain discipline without corporal punishment," the statement said. "Education and discipline have no use for such methods."

COMPANY GOES OVER QUOTA IN MEN ENROLLED

Fifty-eight Men Signed For Service With Guards.

Last Minute Rush At Recruiting Office Brings Enlistments In Drove.

With 58 men signed Thursday morning the quota of enlistments for the National Guard machine gun company in this city was filled.

So great was the rush of recruits as the quota neared completion that five more than the number needed were enlisted. At five o'clock Wednesday evening 49 men had been signed but still the continued to come.

Plans are now under way for mustering into the Federal service and the ceremony will take place within a few days.

Having obtained enough enlistments to insure the formation of the company, Captain Marx and Sergeant Walsh left Thursday morning for Chillicothe where they expected to round up enough recruits to muster a company into the service there Monday evening.

Physical examinations have been given to 42 men and there were seven yet to be examined Thursday. Thus far there has not been a single disqualification for physical disability and this has been a pleasing feature of the enlistment work for the officers. This is due in great part, it was said, to the fact that the majority of enlistments have been young men, many who served in the world war, and also that almost half the personnel of the company is made up of high school athletes.

As the quota was rapidly nearing the required number Wednesday evening there was a busy scene at the Fayette Auto Club offices, where the recruiting station has been established. There were several applicants, former service men were assisting in the work of rounding up recruits, and two or three men who were officers in the late war were there to do all in their power in raising the company. Among the enlistments were three brothers, Julian, Noah and Earnest Kier. Julian was in the service many months but he applied for enlistment and was instrumental in the signing of his two younger brothers.

TOBACCO UP

VIENNA — Prices of tobacco, a government monopoly, will be greatly increased in the effort to secure additional revenue. Cigars will go up from 43 percent to 233 percent, according to quality, and cigarettes from 100 percent to 150 percent.

NOT LONG UNTIL INCOME TAX DUE

Internal revenue collectors are calling attention to the fact that there are many in this city and county who have not yet figured out what they have to pay Uncle Sam in income tax although the fifteenth of March is not far distant.

Reminders are also being issued that single persons with incomes more than $1,000 and married couples with incomes more than $2,000 must file returns and pay certain percent difference between the exemption and the income.

Although one of the most puzzling problems to the average individual the income tax return always brings forth incidents and explanations that lighten the monotony of the tax officials. Following is a letter received by the Bureau at Springfield:

"I would be glad to pay income tax but in July my daughter ran away with the hired man, my son ventured into matrimony and in September my wife gave birth to a new baby. I hope I have made myself clear. These accidents have set me back."
